

Indian History: Fun and Facts

Maya peeped into the keyhole of the next kingdom, early one morning. She saw a king being massaged with lots of oil. Then he started physical exercises. He worked out for an hour, wrestled for a while and then went for a ride on his horse ... Meet Krishnadevaraya of the Vijayanagar Empire.

Maya stood in front of a church at Shropshire in UK and saw people in a state of panic. She saw a boy perched on a gargyle atop the church tower, grinning at everyone. Everyone scolded him, and reminded him that he had already been expelled from three schools ... Meet little Robert Clive, who would grow up to establish British rule in India.

Maya peeps into every chapter of India's fascinating history beginning with the Harappan culture and ending with today's entrepreneurial e-India. And comes up with a dizzying burst of experiences, which adds up to the Great Indian way of life.
