

INDIA'S STRUGGLE FOR INDEPENDENCE

BIPAN CHANDRA
MRIDULA MUKHERJEE
ADITYA MUKHERJEE
SUCHETA MAHAJAN
K.N. PANIKKAR

OVER 100,000 COPIES SOLD

Contents

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Acknowledgements   | 9   |
| A Note on Style  | 11  |
| Introduction   | 13  |
| 1. The First Major Challenge: The Revolt of 1857                         | 31  |
| 2. Civil Rebellions and Tribal Uprisings                                 | 41  |
| 3. Peasant Movements and Uprisings after 1857                            | 50  |
| 4. Foundation of the Congress: The Myth                                  | 61  |
| 5. Foundation of the Indian National Congress: The Reality               | 71  |
| 6. Socio-Religious Reforms and the National Awakening                    | 82  |
| 7. An Economic Critique of Colonialism                                   | 91  |
| 8. The Fight to Secure Press Freedom                                     | 102 |
| 9. Propaganda in the Legislatures  | 113 |
| 10. The Swadeshi Movement—1903-1908                                      | 124 |
| 11. The Split in the Congress andthe Rise of Revolutionary Terrorism | 135 |
| 12. World War I and Indian Nationalism: The Ghadar                       | 146 |
| 13. The Home Rule Movement and Its Fallout                               | 159 |
| 14. Gandhiji's Early Career and Activism                                 | 170 |
| 15. The Non-Cooperation Movement—1920-1922                               | 184 |
| 16. Peasant Movements and Nationalism in the 1920s                       | 197 |
| 17. The Indian Working Class and the National Movement                   | 210 |
| 18. The Struggles for Gurdwara Reform and Temple Entry                   | 224 |
| 19. The Years of Stagnation—Swarajists,No-Changers and Gandhiji      | 235 |
| 20. Bhagat Singh, Surya Sen and the Revolutionary Terrorists             | 247 |
| 21. The Gathering Storm—1927-1929  | 260 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 22. Civil Disobedience—1930-1932                     | 270 |
| 23. From Karachi to Wardha: The Years from 1932-1934 | 284 |
| 24. The Rise of the Left-Wing                        | 296 |
| 25. The Strategic Debate—1934-1937                   | 311 |
| 26. Twenty-eight Months of Congress Rule             | 323 |
| 27. Peasant Movements in the 1930s and '40s          | 343 |
| 28. The Freedom Struggle in Princely India           | 356 |
| 29. Indian Capitalists and the National Movement     | 375 |
| 30. The Development of a Nationalist Foreign Policy  | 386 |
| 31. The Rise and Growth of Communalism               | 398 |
| 32. Communalism—The Liberal Phase                    | 414 |
| 33. Jinnah, Golwalkar and Extreme Communalism        | 428 |
| 34. The Crisis at Tripuri to the Cripps Mission      | 443 |
| 35. The Quit India Movement and the INA              | 457 |
| 36. Post-War National Upsurge                        | 473 |
| 37. Freedom and Partition                            | 487 |
| 38. The Long-Term Strategy of the National Movement  | 505 |
| 39. The Indian National Movement:                    |     |
| The Ideological Dimension                            | 518 |
| Additional Reading                                   | 529 |
| Notes  | 543 |
| Index  | 573 |

Acknowledgements

This work is partly the result of an ongoing research project on the history of the Indian national movement conducted under the direction of Bipan Chandra and financed by the Indian Council of Social Science Research. A special feature of the project is that apart from utilizing traditional sources such as archives, private papers, institutional papers, and newspapers, it has attempted to use the experience and understanding of the grass-roots level participants in the national movement. We are extremely thankful to more than 1500 freedom fighters who gave freely of their time and extended us generous hospitality when we interviewed them. Along with Bipan Chandra, three of the contributors to the volume — Mridula Mukherjee, Aditya Mukherjee, and Sucheta Mahajan — are members of this project. We are grateful to K.N. Panikkar for contributing two chapters to the book.

We have benefited immensely from our long-term interaction with S. Gopal and Romila Thapar. Many colleagues and students — V. Ramakrishna, D.N. Gupta, Prem Choudhry, Mohinder Singh, Sashi Joshi, Bhagwan Josh, Lajpat Jagga, A. Murali, K. Gopalan Kutty, C.S. Krishna, Gyan Kudaisya, Visalakshi Menon, A. Thomas, Vineeta Damodaran, Harjot Oberoi, Neerja Singh, C. Chandermohan — have enabled us to evolve our ideas and have also helped in several other ways.

Many friends — P.C. Joshi, B.D. Talib, Barun De, S. Bhattacharya, V.N. Datta, Ravinder Kumar, Hitesh Sanyal, Randhir Singh, Mohit Sen, Kewal Varma, Pramod Kumar — have deepened our knowledge of the subject through discussions and criticism.

38. The Long-term Strategy of the National Movement

1. This Chapter is based on Bipan Chandra, Indian National Movement: The Long-term Dynamics, New Delhi, 1988.
2. Gandhi, CW, Vol.64, p.194. Also Vol.68, p.319.
3. Gandhi, CW, Vol.67, p.226.
4. Ibid., p.420.
5. Ibid., Vol.69, p.60.
6. Indian National Congress, March 1940 to September 1946: Being the Resolutions Passed by the Congress, AICC and the Working Committee, New Delhi, 1946.
7. Nehru, SW, Vol.4, p.195; Bhagat Singh, Why I am an Atheist, p.12.

39. The Indian National Movement — The Ideological Dimension

1. Gandhi, CW, Vol.76, p.384.
2. Kesari, 16 June 1908, quoted in Ashis Kumar Dhuliya, Aspects of Tilak's Political Strategy and His Struggle for Civil Liberties, M.Phil Dissertation, Centre for Historical Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, 1984, p.269.
3. Gandhi, CW, Vol.22, pp.142 and 176-7.
4. Ibid., Vol.69, p.356.
5. Nehru, SW, Vol.7, p.414.
6. Ibid., Vol. 11, p.367.
7. See, for example, Gandhi, CW, Vol.68, pp.258-9.
8. Bipan Chandra, 'British and Indian Ideas on Indian Economic Development, 1858-1905,' in Bipan Chandra Nationalism and Colonialism in Modern India, pp.92 ff.
9. Ibid., pp.109 ff; and Bipan Chandra, The Rise and Growth of Economic Nationalism in India, pp.90 ff.
10. Indian National Congress: Resolutions on Economic Policy, Programme and Allied Matters 1924-1969, New Delhi, 1969, p. 16.
11. Gandhi, CW, Vol.55, p.427.
12. References are too many. The reader may see Gyorgy Kalmar, Gandhism, Budapest, 1977; and Francine R. Frankel, India's Political Economy 1947-1977: The Gradual Revolution, Delhi, 1978, Chapters 1 and 2.
13. Gandhi, CW, Vol.64, p.192.
14. Ibid., Vol.76, p.367.
15. Ibid., pp.437, 445-6.

Index

A

- Abdul Ghaffar Khan (1891-1988), 273, 287, 436.
 Aga Khan (1857-1957), 417, 420, 424, 426, 432, 434.
 Agarkar, G.S., 212.
 Ahmed, Muzaffar (d. 1973), 219, 297, 301-2.
 Ahmedabad Textile Labour Association, 218.
 Ahmediya Movement, 83.
 Ajit Singh, 128, 133, 145, 149.
 Ajmal Khan, Hakim, 228, 420.
 Akali Dal, 226, 229.
 Akali Movement, 225, ff; and non-violence, 190; and national movement, 190, 224-5, 227-8; non-communal character of, 229.
 Ali brothers (Mohammed Ali (1878-1931) and Shaukat Ali (1873-1938)), 187-9, 226, 366, 399, 420-2, 425.
 Aligarh Movement, 83, 85.
 All India States' People's Conference, 310, 357-8, 369.
 All India Students Federation, 310.
 All India Trade Union Congress (AITUC), 215, 216, 219, 220, 336-7.
 All India Women's Conference, 310.
 All Parties Conference, 263.
 Ambedkar, B.R., (1891-1956), 291, 293-4, 336, 364.
 Amery, L.S., (1873-1955), 455.
 Amrita Bazar Patrika, 103; and Vernacular Press Act, 105; and Curzon, 106; on Goenka, 122.
 Anant Singh, 251.
 Andhra Mahasabha, 367, 369-70.
 Andrews, C.F., (1871-1940), 21, 63, 175, 216.
 Ansari, M.A., (1880-1936), 289, 311, 391, 410, 425, 434.
 Anushilan Samiti, 144, 150, 250-1.
 Arya Samaj, 83.
 Asaf Ali, (1888-1953), 187, 311, 425, 475.
 Asaf Ali, Aruna, 463, 467, 485.
 Asan, N. Kumaran, 230.
 Ashfaqullah Khan, 248.
 Ashraf, Dr. K.M., 407, 413.
 Ashrams, Gandhian; Tolstoy Farm as precursor of, 174; Sabarmati Ashram at Ahmedabad, 177, 179; Ashrams in Bardoli taluqa, 204-05; abandonment of Sabarmati Ashram, 292; Wardha Ashram, 292; Vedchi Ashram, 245; and constructive work, 245.

Asia consciousness and national movement, 388, 389.

Attlee, C.R., (1883-1936), 483, 492, 494-6.

Auchinleck, General, 499.

August Resolution, see Quit India Movement.

Azad, Chandrasekhar, 247-9, 255-7, 297.

Azad, Maulana Abul Kalam, (1888-1958), 323, 410, 420, 425, 436, 474, 514.

Azad Hind Fauj, see under INA.

B

Bahadur Shah II, (1775-1862), 31.

Bajaj, Jamnalal, 375.

Banerjee, Sasipada, 210.

Banerjea, Surendranath,

(1848-1925), 72, 73, 93, 103, 117,

120, 140; as nationalist historian,

21; and India as a nation-in-the-making, 23; and co-operation with

Hume, 80; and freedom of the Press,

106-7; on Tilak's imprisonment, 110;

and partition of Bengal, 126; and Swadeshi movement, 127; and Home

Rule League, 167; and Second

Afghan War, 387; leaves Congress, 433.

Bardoli resolution, 194.

Bardoli taluqa; non-cooperation in 191; Congress work among the untouchables and tribal people in, 204.

Bardoli taluqa, peasants' movement in, 204 ff; Vallabhbhai Patel as leader of, 206; role of Gandhi in, 205-6,

208; role of women in, 207; role of social boycott in, 207.

Barkatullah, M, (d.1928), 152-5.

Batlivala, S.S., 326, 327.

Besant, Annie, (1847-1933), 160-1,

178; early career of, 160; and Home

Rule League, 146, 160-1, 163-4; and

Lucknow Pact, 166; arrest of, 167;

release of, 168; as President of Congress, 168; and 1918 Reforms,

169.

Bhagat Singh, (1907-1931), 247-50,

254, 266, 284, 297; popularity of,

250; radical social programme of,

254; and role of ideas, 254-5; and

Marxism, 255, 257-8; and role of intelligentsia 255; and abandonment of terrorism, 255-6; and socialism,

256-7 and 297; and secularism, 257;

and communalism, 257-8; and Lajpat

Rai, 257; and religion, 258; as an atheist, 258; and Gandhi-Irwin Pact,

281; also see Revolutionary Terrorism.

Bhakna, Sohan Singh, 149, 152, 156

350.

Bhave, Vinoba, 453.

Birkenhead, Lord, (1872-1930), 196,

263.

Birla, G.D., (1894-1983), 244, 375-

81, 384, 524.

Bismil, Ramprasad, 248.

Bombay Industrial Disputes Act of 1938, 332; and left critique of, 332.

Bombay Plan, 376, 384, 524.

Bombay Presidency Association, 72.

Bonnerjee, W.C., 74-5, 117.

Bose, Anand Mohan, 72, 117, 127.

Bose, Jagdish Chandra, 131.

Bose, Khudiram, 144, 156.

Bose, Nandlal, 131.

Bose, N.K., 503.

Bose, Rash Behari,

(revolutionary), 144, 154-6.

Bose, Sarat, 476.

Bose, Subhas Chandra,

(1897-1945), and socialism, 26, 262,

297, 525; as principal of National College, 187; and withdrawal of Non-Cooperation Movement, 192;

and AITUC, 216; and Left consolidation within Congress, 221;

arrest in 1924, 239, 251; as-Chief

Executive Officer, Calcutta, 242; and Revolutionary Terrorist, 250; as leader of youth, 262; and Gandhi in 1933, 289; and Independence for

India League, 298; and Peasants' and Workers' Parties, 301; Communists on, 301; and Forward Bloc, 307;

and Nehru, 304; and defeat of Pattabhi Sitaramayya in 1939, 309;

and office acceptance, 319; and

National Planning Committee, 333;

and Congress Presidential election,

443; and Congress Right-wing, 444;

and Jawaharlal Nehru, 444-5;

differences with Gandhi, 445-7;

resignation of, 447; and Forward

Bloc, 447; and World War II, 451;

and the Left, 452; and INA, 472-3.

Brahmo Samaj, 82-3, 85-6.

Brailsford, H.N. 289.

British policy, towards communalism, 132, 142, 242-3, 290,

408, ff., 418, also see Separate electorates; towards Moderates, 135-

7; of dividing the national movement, 137-8, 238, 316-9; of isolating extremists, 137; towards nationalists in 1917, 168; towards

Akali agitation, 225-9; and provincialization of Congress, 318-

9; and national movement (1939-

40), 448-9, and transfer of power,

492; and Partition, 492, 497-8.

Brockway, Fenner, 508.

C

Cabinet Mission, 483, 485, 492.

Cabinet Mission Plan, 492-4,

Calcutta Killings, 438.

Cama, Madame, 145, 150.

Capitalists, Indian, and Congress,

375; national movement and strategy of, 375 ff., economic development of, 375-6; and colonialism, 376-7,

385; as 'class for-itself,' 377; and constitutionalism, 378-9; and

Gandhi-Irwin Pact, 381-2, and transformation of the Congress, 383;

and strategy to contain the Left,

384; and Bombay Plan, 376, 384-5, ideological hegemony of, 385.

Chaman Lal, Dewan, (1892-1973),

215-6, 244.

Charlu, P. Ananda, 72, 74, 99, 117.

Chatterjee, Bankim Chandra, 43, 83,

87, 410.

Chatterjee, Jogesh Chandra, 247-8.

Chauri Chaura, 191.

Chavan, Y.B., 466.

Chiang Kai-Shek, 455.

China, 101, and Indian nationalists,

388-90, 394-5, 454.

Chirol, Valentine, 17, 18, 169.
 Chittagong Armoury Raid, 251-3, 258.
 Chowdhary, Malati, 351.
 Civil Disobedience Movement, (1930-1931), 270 ff; Government policy towards, 273-4, 287-9; strategy of non-violence, 273-4; raids on salt depots, 274-5; and role of women, 276, 283; and role of students and youth, 276; no-tax campaign in Bardoli, 277-8, 344; no-rent campaign in U.P., 278, 344; forms of mobilization, 279; and Muslim participation, 282-3; peasantry's role in, 343, 344; and forest satyagraha in, 344.
 Civil Disobedience Movement (1932-34), 287 ff; British Policy towards, 286-7, withdrawal of, 288; and strategy of national movement, 289; outcome of, 289.
 Civil Rebellions, 41-44; role of different classes and groups, 41-43; causes of, 41-43; Sanyasi, Chuar and other uprisings, 43-44, significance of, 44.
 Colonial culture, 82, 87, 90; and ideological hegemony, 90.
 Colonial hegemony, and notion of invincibility of British rule, 24, 98-9, 342, 506; and notion of benevolence of British rule, 24, 98-9, 488-9, 506; and acquiescence of the ruled, 98-9, 488, 506.
 Colonial ideology, 82, 87.
 Colonial policy, see under British policy.

Colonial state, basic despotic character of, 113-14; semi-hegemonic, semi-authoritarian character of, 506; and constitutional space, 506, 513.
 Communal Award, 290 ff, and Depressed classes, 290 ff.
 Communal Ideology, 398, 399, 415, 418, 422, 435-8, 440; and Two-nation Theory, 440.
 Communalism, growth of in 1920s, 242, 422, after 1937, 430, and World War II, 430-1; and Nehru Report, 263, 423, 424; and Delhi Proposals, 423; definition of, 398-9; stages of, 398-400; liberal phase, 399, 400, 414 ff, 428; extreme phase, 399-400, 428 ff, 436 ff; and 'community' interests, 400; as remnant of the past, 410; as modern phenomenon, 401, 414; rise of, 401 ff, and impact of colonial economy, 402-5, 408; social base of, 402-4, 407-9, 418, 426; and middle classes, 403-4, 408; as distorted class struggle, 405-7, colonial state and, 408-9, 430; and Hindu tinge, 410, 411; and national movement, 430; and communal view of history, 411-2; and religion, 412-3; and Syed Ahmed Khan, 416 ff, and loyalism, 417, nationalist strategy of dealing with, 423-5.
 Communist International, 300, 302, 340.
 Communist movement in India, Communist groups in the 1920s, 219; influence on trade unions in 1920s, 219, and Congress and national movement, 26-7, 220-22, 301-4; and AITUC, 220-1; and People's War, 222, 351-2; and Meerut Conspiracy Case, 245, 265-6, 302; and Workers' and Peasants' Parties, 263; foundation of CPI, 300-1; government repression of, 301-2; on Congress, 302; on Nehru and Bose, 302-3; on Gandhi-Irwin Pact, 303; and revolutionary terrorists, 303; and peasants' movements, 304, 351-2; and Congress Socialist Party, 309, 344; on office acceptance, 319 and Telengana struggle, 370-2; and Soviet Union, 396; and Bose and crisis at Tripuri, 447; and INA release campaign, 479, 483, 484; and RIN Revolt, 480, 482-4.

 Congress, Indian National, foundation of, 69 ff; Safety valve theory of, 61 ff; myth regarding, 61 ff; and political awakening in 19th century, 71; and role of intelligentsia, 72; and need of an all India organization, 73-4; as headquarters of national movement, 71, 77; as leader of national movement, 71, 77, 159; official suspicion of, 71; as movement, 79; and democracy, 78; and secularism, 79; diversity of ideological currents in, 79; and anti-colonial ideology, 79; role of Hume in, 80-1; and the Press, 102; organizational structure of, 102, and swadeshi, 127-8; and Swaraj, 128; British attitude towards, 136-7; Surat Split in, 135 ff, 140; Congress-League Unity (Lucknow Pact), 161, 165; re-entry of Extremists into, 165-6; withdrawal of Moderates from, 168; and Non-Cooperation, 184 ff; organizational changes in (1920s), 186; and AITUC, 216; and Akali agitation, 228; and social reform, 230-3; and Swaraj party, 235, 240; and Council Entry, 238; and no-changers, 238; work in municipal bodies, 242; and boycott of Simon Commission, 261 ff., and Dominion status, 264; and Meerut Conspiracy Case, 265; and Purna Swaraj, 268; and Independence Pledge, 268; and non-violence, 268; and CDM, 270 ff; and Gandhi-Irwin Pact, 279 ff, 284; and RTC, 279; and Karachi Resolution on Fundamental Rights and national economic programme, 284-5, and Communal Award, 290, 431; and separate electorate, 290; Left-wing in, 297; Nehru and Transformation of, 300; and constitutional work in 1934, 311, 315; and danger of split in 1934, 314-6; and 1934 elections, 316; government strategy of splitting and co-opting, 316-9; and Act of 1935, 319; and Constituent Assembly, 319; and office acceptance, 319-22; and election of 1937, 322; and election manifesto of 1937, 322; and critique of colonial structure, 327; and class adjustments, 328; and landlords, 328; weakness of during Ministry period, 328-9; avoiding of split during 1937-39, 342; and growth of nationalist hegemony, 342; and peasants' movements, 346; in Bihar, 355; and struggles in Indian States, 357-60,

365, 374, and capitalist class, 379-384, and Delhi Proposals, 423; and Nehru Report, 423-4, and Muslim Mass contact programme, 431; and Muslim League and 1937 Ministry formation in U.P., 439-41; crisis at Tripuri session, 443-4; disciplinary action against Bose, 447; and World War II, 448-50; and differences within regarding satyagraha during World War II, 450; Ramgarh Resolution, 451; and Individual Satyagraha, 453-4; and Cripps Mission, 455-6; and Quit India Movement (see Quit India Movement); revival after World War II, 470; and Simla Conference, 470; and elections (1946), 474; and INA release campaign, 479, 482-4; and RIN Revolt, 482-4; and Partition of India, 441-2, 487, 500-1, 503, historiographic controversy around, 487, 500-1; and welding of India into a nation, 487, failure of, 487-8; and Cabinet Mission Plan, 493-4; and Interim Government, 493-4; and Attlee's Statement of February 20 1947, 495; and Constituent Assembly, 495; and Mountbatten Plan, 497-8; and strategy of fighting communalism, 502; strategy of (see Strategy of National Movement, Indian); and linguistic provinces, 522; and agrarian policy of, 527; and abolition of landlordism, 527; as a democratic organization, 15; non-split of Congress, 27, also see Congress ministries; foreign policy, nationalists; national movement

Indian; national movement early; national movement extremists. Congress Ministries, 1937-39, and civil liberties, 15, 325, 326; and labour, 221, 331-2, 336-7; and temple entry, 233; and Congress Parliamentary Sub-committee, 323; and S-T-S' strategy, 323; impact of formation of, 324; limitations of, 324, 328-9; and ameliorative measures, 325; and Communist Party, 325, 336; and police, 325; and agrarian reform, 327-8; and strategy of class adjustments, 328; agrarian legislation of, 329, 345, 527, in U.P., 329-30, in Bihar, 330, 349, in Orissa, 330, in Madras, 330, 344, in other provinces, 331; and debt relief legislation in Madras, Bombay, Bihar, 331; and forest laws, 331; and constructive work, 333; and National Planning Committee, 333; and mass political activity, 334-7; and the Left, 335-6; and Kisan Sabhas, 336; and student and youth movements, 336; and weaknesses in Congress, 338-9; resignation of, 339-40; evaluation of the record of, 340-2; and communal riots, 341; and Indian Civil Service, 341; and peasants' movement, 345; and morale of civil services, 490-2. Congress Right-Wing, and danger of Congress split in 1930s, 316; on office acceptance, 320-1; anti-imperialism of, 526; as reformists, 526; and socialism, 526. Congress Socialist Party; formation of, 304-5, 344; and the growth of the Left in the Congress, 221; and Marxism, 304, 306-7; and transformation of Congress, 305; and split in the Congress, 305; and Gandhi, 305-7; and Nehru, 305-6; and Subhas Bose, 306; and Congress Right-Wing, 306; and Fabianism, 306; and communists, 309, 344; and office acceptance, 319; and Soviet Union, 391; and World War II, 448. Constructive Work, Gandhian; different aspects of, 243-6, 265; and untouchability, 232, 245, 265; and no-changers, 245; and tribal people, 245-6; and nation-in-the-making, 246; constructive workers as Congress cadre and steel frame of national movement, 246, 512; and 'passive' phases of mass movements, 246, 295, 512; and strategy of national movement, 512; role of ashrams, 512; also see Gandhi. Churchill, Winston, 454-5, 465. Cripps, Stafford, (1889-1952), 454-5. Cripps Mission, 454-5; and Pakistan demand, 456. Curzon, Lord, 17, 18, 94, 106, 136, 137, 387.

D

Das, Rina, 253.
Das, C.R., (1870-1925), 236, 513-4; giving up of legal practice, 187; and Non-Cooperation Movement, 186, 187, withdrawal of, 192; and labour, 213; and AITUC, 216; and Swaraj Party and Council Entry, 235; and Gandhi, 236, 239, 240; on Government repression, 241; as Mayor of Calcutta, 242; death of, 242; and Revolutionary Terrorists, 250; and Soviet Union, 396; and secularism, 410; work in legislature, 513; and non-violence, 514. Also see, Swarajists.

Das, Tarak Nath, 167.
Das, Jatin, 247, 250, 266.
Dange, S.A., 219, 297, 302, 345.
Dave, Jugatram, 205, 245.
Dayanand, Swami, (1825-1883), 85, 88.
Delhi Declaration, 266.
Depression, impact on India of, 343.
Desai, A.R., 21, 22.
Desai, Bhulabhai, 311.
Desai, Dayalji, 204.
Desai, Mahadev, 178.
Desai, Morarjee, 490.
Deshmukh, Gopal Hari, (1823-1892), 86, 89.
De-industrialization, 36-7, 42-3, 50, 268;
Dhebar, U.N., (1905-1977), 361.
Dhingra, Madan Lal, 145.
Digby, William, 508.
Drain Theory, 96-7; and foreign capital, 94; and nationalists, 96-7; political impact of, 98.
Dufferin, Lord, 17, 18, 415; and foundation of Congress, 61-2, 69, 70; and Hume, 61, 68-70; and critique of Congress, 69-70; on Indian Press, 103-4; and Indian Councils Act of 1892, 116.
Dutt, Akshay Kumar, (1820-1886), 83, 85-6.
Dutt, Ashwini Kumar, 129, 133.

Dutt, B.C., 479.
 Dutt, B.K., 249, 266.
 Dutt, Kalpana, 253.
 Dutt-Bradley Thesis, 303.
 Dutt, R.C., 120, 387, 508; and analysis of British rule, 92; and Drain Theory, 97.
 Dutt, R. Palme, (1896-1974); 21, 22, 26, 483; on safety valve theory, 62; on compromising character of Congress, 62; on Moubatten settlement, 62; critique of withdrawal of Non-Cooperation by, 192; on Congress ministries, 337.
 Dyer, General, 182, 184.

E

Early Political Association, 72.
 Erskine, Lord, (1895-1953), 319.
 Extremists, Nationalist, see National Movement, Extremist.

F

Fazl-ul-Haq, (1873-1962), 436, 441.
 Fischer, Louis, 459, 528.
 Foreign Policy, nationalist; basic features of, 386-91; and Second Afghan War, 73, 386-7; and expedition to Egypt, 387; and Burma War and annexation of Burma, 387; attack on Tibet, 387; forward policy on northwestern frontier, 387-8; and Asia consciousness, 388; and role of foreign capital exports, 389, and World War I, 389; and Burma's independence, 390; and China (see China); and Japan (see Japan); and internationalism, 391-2; and Fascism, 392; and Spanish Civil War, 393; and attack of Ethiopia, 393; and attack on Czechoslovakia, 394; and Palestine problem, 395; and Soviet Union, 395-6; and World War II, 397.

G

Gallagher, J.A., 17-19.
 Ganapati festival, 107, 130.
 Gandhi, Kasturba, (1869-1944), 363.
 Gandhi, Mohandas Karamchand, (1869-1948); and Gokhale, 123, 177; and passive resistance, 133-4; on Tilak and Home Rule, 163, 167, 177; in South Africa, 169-76; and Champaran, Ahmedabad and Kheda struggles, 169-70, 179-83; and World War I, 177; and Khilafat and Non-Cooperation Movement, 185 ff, and boycott of foreign cloth, 188; and Khadi, 188; and withdrawal of Non-Cooperation Movement, 191-6; and peasant movement and payment of rent to landlords, 203; and work among untouchables and tribal people in Bardoli taluqa, 204-5; and Bardoli peasant struggle, 205, 206, 208; and railway workers, 217; and Ahmedabad Textile Labour Association, 218; and Gurdwara Reform movement, 226-7; and untouchability, 230-1; and Vaikom Satyagraha, 231; and Guruvayur Satyagraha, 223; arrest and trial of in 1922, 235; and work in legislatures, 238, 243; and accomodation with Swarajists, 238-40; basic political style regarding co-workers, 238-9; and Meerut

Conspiracy Case, 245, 265, 302; and Simon Commission, 261; and Dominion Status, 264; and preparation for CDM, 264-5; and Jawaharlal Nehru, 266-7, 299-300, 454-5; and CDM, 270 ff; and critique of colonialism, 270; and Dandi March, 271-272; on non-violence, 271-2; and Gandhi- Irwin Pact, 280 ff., and Revolutionary Terrorists, 284; and RTC (second), 285-6; and second phase of CDM, 287-90, and role of the masses, 29, 290, 507; and Communal Award and eradication of untouchability, 291-3; fast on Communal Award, 291; and Poona Pact, 291; and campaign against untouchability, 291 ff, and caste system, 294; radicalization of, 26, 309-10, 527-8; on constructive work in 1934-35, 311; strategic paradigm of — see strategy of national movement; and danger of Congress split in 1934, 314-5; and constitutional work, 314-5; resignation from Congress, 315, 316; and Left and Socialists, 315-6; and office acceptance, 321-2; on Congress Ministries, 323-4, 325, 338-40; and civil liberties, 338, 521; Manifesto to Kisans (1931), 343; and popular movements in Princely States, 359, 369; and Rajkot Satyagraha, 363 ff, and Burma's independence, 390; and use of Indian army in China, 390; and internationalism, 392; and Fascism, 393; and Hitler's suppression of Jews, 393; and attack on Czechoslovakia, 394; on Palestine problem, 395; and Soviet Union, 396; and World War II, 397, 448-50, and communal problem, 426; and Subhas Bose's election of 1939, 443-4; and Individual Satyagraha, 453; and Cripps Mission, 457-8; and Quit India, 459-60; and violence in 1942, 464, 470; fast in jail (1943), 464; and RIN Revolt, 485-6; and Cabinet Mission, 486; and Partition of India, 500-4; and 15 August 1947, 506; and shift from active to passive phases of a movement, 511-2; and modern industry, 523; peasantist, artisanists and non-capitalist outlook of, 525; and social transformation, 527; agrarian radicalism of, 528; also see Constructive work, and Strategy of national movement.

Gandhi-Irwin Pact, 280; controversy around, 281-82; and basic strategy of Indian national movement, 281-2; impact of, 282; and Bhagat Singh and his comrades, 284; Communists on, 303; and capitalist class, 381.

Gandhian Ashrams, see Ashrams, Gandhian.

Garhwali Soldiers' refusal to fire at Peshawar, 273.

Ghadar Revolutionaries, 146 ff; and Komagata Maru incident, 151-3; propaganda and ideology of, 149-50, 156; and secularism, 150, 155-6, 158; and religion, 155-6, contribution of, 155, as national, peasant and communist leaders, 157-8.

Ghate, S.V, 301.

- Ghosh, Ajoy, (1909-1962), 348.
 Ghosh, Aurobindo, 150, 156, 508; and swadeshi, 128; and violent resistance, 129, 144; and revolutionary terrorists, 129; as principal of Bengal National College, 130; retirement from politics of, 133, 141, 159; and Surat Split, 138, 139, 140; on decline of national movement, 141.
 Ghosh, Ganesh, 251-2.
 Ghosh, Lal Mohan, (1849-1909), 117.
 Ghosh, Motilal, (1847-1922), 103.
 Ghosh, Rash Behari, (Moderate), (1845-1921); as journalist, 104, 114, 117, 140.
 Ghosh, Sisir Kumar, (1840-1911), 103.
 Girmil Kamgar Union, 219, 220.
 Gokhale, Gopal Krishna, (1866-1915); 76, 120, 128, 136, 141, 160, and achievements of early nationalists, 80; and role of Hume, 80-1; and economic analysis of British rule, 92; as editor, 103, and demand for self-government, 116; and work in the legislature, 117, 120 ff, 508, 513; and budget, 121, 122; and public finance, 121; and salt tax, 121; and land revenue, 121, and income-tax, 121; and expenditure on army, 121; on territorial expansion, 121; on expenditure on education and industry, 121; on colonial economy and poverty, 121, and G.V. Joshi, 122; and on underdevelopment of India, 122; on civil liberties, 122; and Gandhi, 123; Tilak on, 123; and Surat Split, 138-40; in South Africa, 174, 175; and Gandhi, 177.
 Golwalkar, M.S. (1906-1973); and safety valve theory, 63; Congress as de-nationalizer, 63; and RSS, 437-8; and extreme communalism, 437-8; and Gandhi, 438; and Congress, 438.
 Gopal, S., 20, 298, 440, 453.
 Gopalan, A.K., (1904-1977); 232-3.
 Government of India Act of 1919, 184, 241.
 Government of India Act of 1935, 316-7, 350.,
 Gramsci, Antonio, 30, 77, 134; and hegemony, 30; and war of position, 516.
 Guruvayur Satyagraha, 232-34.
 Gwyer, Sir Maurice, (1878-1952), 364.
- H
- Halifax, Lord, see Lord Irwin.
 Hamilton, George, 136, 137.
 Har Dayal, (1884-1939), 145, 156; and Ghadar, 148-49, 151-2, 155-7.
 Hardinge, Lord, 144, 148, 154, 175.
 Harijan Sewak Sangh, 292.
 Harijan uplift movement, 292 ff; and politics, 295.
 Hindu communalism, growth of, 502.
 Hindu Mahasabha, 418, 426, 429-31.
 Hindu, The, 102; on foreign capital, 95, 389.
 Hindustan Republican Association (Army), 248.

Hindustan Socialist Republican Association (Army), 266, 307.
 Historiography of national movement, schools of, 16 ff;
 imperialist school, 17-20, 119;
 nationalist school, 21; Marxist school, 22-3; 'subaltern' school, 20, 21; elite theory of, 18; authors' approach, 22 ff.
 Hunter Committee, 184, 185.
 History and Communalism, 411.
 Home Rule Leagues, see Home Rule Movement.
 Home Rule Movement, 159 ff, and Congress, 160; and relations between the two Home Rule Leagues, 161-2; and secularism, 162-3; and Moderates, 165, 168; decline of, 168-9; achievements of, 169.
 Hume, Allan Octavian, (1829-1912); and safety valve theory, 63-65; and secret reports, 64-5; and religious leaders, mahatmas, gurus, and chelas, 65-70; and Congress on social reforms, 69; Hume and Dufferin, 61, 68-70; Hume and Ripon, 67-8; role of in foundation of Congress, 63 ff; 80-1.
 Hyderabad; economic conditions in, 366; impact of Non-cooperation and CDM on, 366-7; cultural suppression in, 367; cultural awakening in, 367; absence of civil liberties in, 366-7, Satyagraha (1938), in 367-8; Arya Samaj Satyagraha in, 368; Vande Mataram Movement in, 368; and World War II, 369, and Quit India Movement, 370; peasant struggle in Telengana in, 370-2; and integration with Indian Union, 371-3.

 Hyderabad State Congress, 367 ff.

I

- Indian Association, 72-3.
 Indian Councils Act, 1861, 113-4.
 Indian Councils Act, 1892, 115-6.
 Indian Councils Act, 1909, 141-2.
 Indian Councils before 1892, 114.
 Independence Day, 268; pledge, 268-9.
 Independence for India League, 298.
 Indian Language Newspapers in the 19th century: Akhbar-i-Aam, 103; Bangavasi, 103; Dhyan Prakash, 103; Gujrati, 103; Hindustani, 103; Sadharani, 103; Som Prakash, 103; Sudharak, 103; Swadeshmitran, 102; Indu Prakash, 103.
Indian Mirror, 103.
 Indian National Army (INA), 471-2; movement for release of INA prisoners, 475-82.
 Indian National Congress, see Congress, Indian National.
 Indian National Movement, see National Movement, Indian.
 International Congress against Colonial Oppression and Imperialism, 298, 391.
 Irish nationalists' impact on Indian national movement, 143.
 Iqbal, Mohammed, (1876-1938); 420, 441.
 Irwin, Lord, (1881-1959); 208, 266.
 Islam, Nazrul, 297, 301.
 Iyengar, S. Srinivasa, (1874-1941), 390.

Iyer, G. Subramaniya, (1855-1916), 72, 80, 92, 103, 120; and working class, 213.

J

Jagga, Lajpat, 213.
 Jallianwala Bagh massacre, 182; impact of, 182-4.
 Japan and national movement, 388, 389, 394-1
 Jayakar, M.R. (1873-1959); 15, 187, 243, 279.
 Jinnah, Mohammed Ali, (1876-1948); and the logic of communalism, 432; as nationalist 163, 167, 432-3; joins Muslim League, 432; opposes separate electorates, 433; and Lucknow Pact, 433; leaves Congress, 433; as liberal communalist, 433-4; and Swarajists, 241; and Simon Commission, 424. and Nehru Report, 423-4, 434; and 14 points, 424; and Hindu-Muslim unity (1936-37), 434; and elections of 1937, 434-5; and extreme communalism, 435; and use of religion, 435-6, 441; and effort to go secular in Pakistan, 438-9; and Ministry-formation in U.P., 439-41; and Cabinet Mission, 493; and Direct Action, 494; and Interim Government, 494; and Attlee's statement of 20 February 1947, 496.
 Joga, Jagir Singh, 351.
 Josh, Sohan Singh, 345.
 Joshi, G.V., (1851-1911), 92-3, 96, 120, 122.
 Joshi, N.M., 219.
 Joshi, P.C., 219, 303-4, 348.

K

Kakori robbery, 248.
 Kal, 103.
 Kanpur Conspiracy Case, 302.
 Kapoor, Jaidev, 247-8.
 Karachi resolution on Fundamental Rights and National Economic Programme, 284-5.
 Kasturbhai Lalbhai, 376.
 Kelappan, K., (1890-1971), 232, 233, 272.
 Kelkar, N.C., 243, 399, 422.
 Kesari, 99, 103, 109.
 —and Labour, 213.
 Kharak Singh, Baba, (1867-1963), 227.
 Khare, N.B., (1882-1969), 339.
 Kher, B.G., (1888-1957), 332.
 Khilafat Movement and Mappila Rebellion, 201.
 Khilafat Question, 184, 185.
 Khudai Khidmatgars, 273, 287, 426.
 Kisan Congress, All-India, 344-5.
 Kisan Sabha, All-India, 344.
 Kisan Sabhas, in Avadh and U.P., 189, 197-9; in Bihar, 336.
 Kitchlew, Saiffudin, 187, 421.
 Koya, P. Moideen, 201.
 Kripalani, J.B., (1888-1982): 178, 218, 321.
 Kripalani, Sucheta., (1908-1974), 463, 467.

L

Laha, Durga Charan, 114.
 Lajpat Rai, (1865-1928); as nationalist historian, 21; and safety valve theory, 61-2, 64; on Hume, 64, 80; and Swadeshi Movement, 128; deportation of, 133, 214; and Surat Split, 140; goes abroad, 141, 159, and Non-Cooperation, 187; and AITUC, 215; and role of working class, 216; and Akali movement, 226; on revolutionary movement, 242, 243; on Public Safety Bill, 244; death of and Revolutionary Terrorists, 249; and Simon Boycott, 262; and American Socialists, 391; and WW I, 391; and Russian Revolution, 395; and communalism, 399, 425-6 and Hindu Mahasabha, 422.

 Lal Chand, 418.
 Law, Edward, on Gokhale, 122.
 League against Imperialism, 262, 392.
 Left-Wing and cultural upsurge in the 1930s, 134; and the national movement, 218-9, 221, 309, 316; influence on working class in 1920s, 219; rise of, 296 ff, 344; programme in the 1930s, 307; failure of, 307-9; and the Congress Right-Wing, 307-8; and negotiations for transfer of power, 308; characterization of Congress by, 308; and Gandhian Strategy, 308; impact on society and politics, 309-10; and radicalization of Gandhi, 309-10; strategic paradigm of, 312-3; and office acceptance, 319-22; and Congress Ministries and civil liberties, 327; and mass political activity and Congress Ministries, 335-7; communist critique of Congress Ministries, 337-9; role in states' people's struggles, 373; and Muslim League and Ministry formation in U.P. in 1937, 440-1; and World War II, 451; and Class struggles, 526; and kisan sabhas and trade unions, 526; also see Congress Socialist Party, Communist movement, and Peasants' and Workers' Parties.

Legislatures; nationalist use of, 113; nationalist propaganda in, 113 ff; Early nationalists' use of, 116 ff; Pherozeshah Mehta's use of, 117 ff; G.K. Gokhale's use of, 120 ff.; Swarajists' use of, 242.

League against Imperialism, 262, 392.

Lenin, V.I., on Tilak's arrest, 112.

Liaquat Ali Khan, 494-5, 500.

Liberals (and Liberal Federation),

—and legislatures, 237; and boycott of Simon Commission.

Linlithgow, Lord, (1887-1952); 317,

319, 362, 449, 455, 460, 491.

Lohia, Rammanohar, (1910-1967),

345, 463-4.

Lokhanday, N.M., 211.

Lokhitavadi, see Gopal Hari

Deshmukh.

Longovalia, Bhagwan Singh, 351.

Lovett, Verney, 17-8.

Lucknow Pact, 166.

M

Madhavan, T.K., (1886-1930), 230.

Madras Mahajan Sabha, 72.

MacDonald, Ramsay, 266, 283.

Mahratta, 103; and labour, 212-3; and foreign policy, 388-9.

- Malaviya, Madan Mohan, (1861-1946), 15, 115, 117, 160, 167, 197, 199, 241, 243, 279, 291, 399, 422, 425, 436-7, 441.
- Mandlik, V.N., (1833-1889), 14.
- Mao Ze-Dong, 395.
- Mappila Rebellions, 58, 201-3.
- Marshall, Alfred, and foreign capital, 94.
- Marxism in India, spread of, 297-8.
- Masani, M.R. (1905- ), 345.
- Mathai, John, (1886-1959), 376.
- Mazhar-ul-Haq, (1866-1930), 420.
- Mazumdar, Ambica Charan, (1850-1922), 165.
- McCully, Bruce T., 17-8.
- Meerut Conspiracy Case, 219, 245, 265-6, 302; and Gandhi, 245, 302; and nationalist, 245, 302.
- Meherally, Yusuf, (1903-1950), 326, 345.
- Mehta, G. L., 384
- Menta, J.K., 383
- Mehta, Kalyanji (1890-1973), 204-5.
- Mehta, Kunverji, 205.
- Mehta Pherozechah, (1845-1915), 72, 80, 508, 513; and work in the legislatures, 117 ff; 121, 513; and Bombay Presidency Association, 117; and Congress, 117; and bureaucracy, 118-19; and higher education, 119; on excise policy, 120; and Surat Split, 138-40, death of, 161; and GIP Railway Signallers' Strike, 213.
- Mehta, Usha, 467.
- Mehta, Vadilal Lallubhai, 375.
- Menon, Krishna, V.K., (1896-1974), 393-4, 508.
- Menon, Visalakshi, 334, 341.
- Militant Nationalists, see National Movement, Extremist.
- Mill, J.S., and foreign capital, 94.
- Mill, James, 411.
- Minto, Lord, 17, 122, 137, 139.
- Misra, B.B., 18.
- Misra, Gauri Shankar, (1888-1955), 197, 198, 199.
- Mitra, Krishna Kumar, (1852-1937), 126, 133.
- Moderate Nationalists, see National Movement, early.
- Mohammed Shafi, (1869-1932), 424, 434.
- Mohinder Singh, 229.
- Mohsin-ul-Mulk, Nawab, 417.
- Montagu-Chelmsford Reforms, 184 (or see Government of India Act, 1919).
- Montagu, Edwin (1879-1924), 167, 168, 196.
- Montagu Declaration, 168.
- Morarjee, Sumati, 463.
- Morley, John, 137, 139, 142, 168.
- Mountbatten, Lord, 495-9.
- Mountbatten Plan, 497-8.
- Mukherji, Girija, 21.
- Mukherjee, Asutosh, (1864-1924), 107.
- Mukherjee, Bankim, (1897-1961), 345, 351.
- Mukherjee, Pearey Mohan, 114, 115.
- Municipal Bodies, work in, 242.
- Munshi, K.M., (1891-1971), 27, 208, 327, 336, 431.

- Muslim League, All India and government, 132; foundation of, 417; loyalism of, 417, 420; and Congress 417, and younger nationalist intellectuals, 420; Congress-League (Lucknow) Pact, 420, 421; and Simon Commission, 426; growth of after 1937, 429; and World War II, 430; and Elections (1937), 431; and INA release campaign, 479; and RIN Revolt, 480; and Cabinet Mission Plan, 493-5; and Direct Action (August, 1946), 494; and Interim government, 493, 494; and Constituent Assembly, 495; and Mountbatten Plan, 497-8; also see communal ideology, communalism and Jinnah, Muslim mass contact programme, 431.
- N
- Nagpur session of Congress 1920, 186.
- Nagpur Flag Satyagraha, 261.
- Naicker, E.V. Ramaswami, 231.
- Naidu, Sarojini, (1879-1949), 274, 370, 432.
- Nair, C. Sankaran, (1857-1934), 117, 388, 433.
- Nair, K. Madhavan, (1882-1933), 201.
- Namboodiripad, E.M.S. (1909-), 234.
- Nanda, B.R., as nationalist historian, 21; on Gokhale, 122.
- Naoroji, Dadabhai, (1825-1917), 23, 120, 136, 138; and Congress social reform 75-6; and sovereignty of the people, 78; on the contribution of early nationalists, 79-80; and Hume 80; and economic analysis of British rule, 92; and poverty of India, 93; and foreign capital, 94, 523; and Drain Theory 97; and undermining of colonial hegemony, 99, 100, 508; and character of British rule, 99, 100; and demand for self-government or Swaraj, 100, 116, 128; as editor of Voice of India, 103; and Tilak's imprisonment, 110; and social and class questions, 211; and International Socialist Congress, 391; and secularism, 425; and M.A. Jinnah, 432.
- Narendra Dev, Acharya, (1889-1956), 304-6, 309, 345, 448, 514.
- Naranji, Lalji, 208.
- Narayan, Guru, 88.
- Narayan, Jayaprakash, 304-7, 309, 345, 371, 448, 463.
- National Movement, Indian; and diverse political and ideological currents in, 14, 16; socio-economic-political vision of, 14; foreign policy of, 14, 16, (also see, Foreign policy, nationalist); and economic development, 15; and foreign capital, 15, 389; and British people, 16; historiographic perspectives on, 16 ff; critique of colonialism and colonial structure, 23, 91 ff; 268-9, 506, 518-9; and anti-colonial ideology, 23; and nation-in-the-making, 23, 74-5; as multi-class movement, 26, 526; and bourgeoisie, 26 (also see Capitalist class, Indian); ideological openness of, 26, 525; ideological transformation of, 26; and non-Congress streams, 27; and role of masses, 27-9, 195-6; as mass movement, 27; social base of, 28; and pre-modern consciousness, 28; forms of participation in, 29; and transformation of popular consciousness, 28; and cultural defence, 28-9; and Drain Theory, 98, 518-9; and freedom of the Press, 15, 105 ff; and Vernacular Press Act, 105; and use of legislatures, 113 ff, 242; and cultural upsurge, 134; and 1918 reforms, 168-9; and peasants' struggles, 197, 203-4, 209; and working class, 211; and international Marxist and Socialist movement, 214; and religious and social reform movements, 224; and constructive work and, 246; constructive workers of cadres and steel frame of, 246; resurgence of in late 1920s, 246, 260 ff; and Simon Commission, 260 ff; and non-violence, 274; and capitalist class 377-83; and bourgeois ideological hegemony, 385; and secularism, 410; and Muslim intelligentsia, 416-7, 419-20; and non-cooperation (see Non-Cooperation Movement); strategy of—vis-a-vis communalism, 423-6, 442; and Civil Disobedience (see CDM); and boycott of Simon Commission, (see Simon Commission, boycott of); and WW II, 448-9; and individual satyagraha, 453-4; an attack on Soviet Union and China, 454, 456; and Quit India Movement (see Quit India

Movement); and spontaneity, 468-9; and INA, 471; and post-war upsurge, 473-4; and INA release campaign, 475-6; and struggle for hegemony, 488, 517; world historical significance of, 13, 516-7; and Russian, French, British, Chinese, Cuban, and Vietnamese revolutions, 13, 517; and struggle for social transformation, 517; and semi-hegemonic character of colonial state, 507; primary contradiction, 518-9; and anti-colonial ideology, 518-9; and de-industrialization, 519; ideological elements of, 519, 528; and civil liberties, 14, 521-2; and democracy, 15, 520, 522; and secularism, 14, 16, 522; and diversity of Indian people, 23, 522; and linguistic provinces, 522; and communalism, 16, 426, 442; and modern economy and industry, 15, 523; and public sector and planning, 15, 523-4; pro-poor orientation of, 15, 524; and socialist orientation of, 14, 524; and bourgeois ideological hegemony, 15, 524-5; socialist trends in, 15, 525-6; and internationalism, 16; impact of Russian Revolution, 525; radicalism of, 526-7; also see Congress, National Movement, early, National Movement, Extremist, Swadeshi Movement, Strategy of National Movement, Non-Cooperation Movement, CDM, Quit India Movement, Gandhi, and Nehru. National Movement, early; defend Tilak, 15; and nation-in-the making, 23, 74-5; and role of nationalist intellectuals, 72; early political associations and newspapers, 72-3; and minorities, 75; and secularism, 75, 79; and Ilbert Bill, 73; early agitations of, 72-3; basic objectives of, 74-9; methods of struggle of, 76; and mass movements, 76, 79; and internalization of democracy, 77-8; and civil liberties, 78; evaluation of nationalist, anti-colonial ideology of, 78-9; and character of colonial state, 78-9; achievements of, 79-80; and critique of colonialism, 78, 91-2, 97-101; and India's underdevelopment, 91, 95, 99; and colonial structure, 92, 97; and independent economic development, 92-3; and poverty of India, 93, 99; and modern industry, 93-4; and modern industry and nation-in-the-making, 93-4; and foreign capital, 94-5; de-industrialization, 95-6; and foreign trade, 95; and railways, 95-6; and free trade, 96; and public finances 96; and drain of wealth and capital, 96-7; and undermining of colonial hegemony, 98-9; and self-government, 100, 116; and primary contradiction, 101; political demands of, 115-6; differences with extremists, 128; contribution of, 101; and Swadeshi, 127-8, 135; exhaustion of their role, 135; failures of, 135-6; official critique of, 135-7; official policy towards, 137; and cooperation with Government, 137; and Surat Split, 138-41; decline of, 141; labour unhappiness with Surat Split of, 160; unity with Tilak, 160; withdrawal from Congress, 168; and Home Rule League, 168; and labour, 211-3.

National Movement, Extremist, and Swadeshi, 128; differences with Moderates, 128; and goal of political independence, 128, and mass movement, 128; and boycott, 128-9, 143; and passive resistance, 128, 143; and role of masses, 143; and Surat Split, 138-40, failures of, 143; failure to evolve new forms of political struggle in mass movements, 143; and Irish nationalists, 143; and Russian Nihilists, 143; and revolutionary terrorists, 144; and re-admission into the Congress, 160, 161.

National Movement, foreign policy of, see Foreign Policy, nationalist.

Nation-in-the-making, 23, 74-5. Nehru, Jawaharlal, (1889-1964) and Home Rule League, 164; and Non-Cooperation propaganda in Avadh and Kisan movement, 189; and withdrawal of Non-cooperation, 192; contacts with Kisan Sabha movement in Avadh, 198-9; and AITUC, 216, 219; and the Left consolidation within the Congress, 221; as President of Allahabad Municipal Committee, 242; and Complete Independence Resolution at Madras, 261; and Simon boycott, 212; as leader of youth, 261; and League Against Imperialism, 262; visit to Soviet Union of, 262, 298; and socialism, 26, 262, 267, 297-9, 312-3, 525-6; and Nehru

Report, 264; and Complete Independence, 264; and Gandhi, 24, 266-7, 288-9, 299-300, 312, 454-5, 457-8; Presidential Address at Lahore Congress, 267-8; on non-violent character of mass movements, 268, 516; and Salt Satyagraha, 273; and no-rent campaign in U.P., in 1930, 278; and agrarian campaign, 1931, 287; and International Congress against colonial oppression and imperialism, 298, 391; and Independence for India League, 298; and Marxism, 298; simultaneous commitment to socialism and nationalism, 300; and transformation of Congress, 300; and Workers' and Peasants' Parties, 301; and Meerut Conspiracy Case, 302; Communists on, 302, and the Congress, 308; and Subhas Bose, 309; and challenge of the Gandhian strategy, 312-3; strategic paradigm of, 312-5; and class struggle, 313; and danger of Congress split in 1930s, 316; and office acceptance, 319-20; and elections of 1937, 322; on formation of Congress Ministries, 324; on Congress Ministries and civil liberties, 326-7; on controls on Congress Ministries, 328; on Congress Ministries and mass political activity, 334, 337; on evaluation of role of Congress Ministries, 339-40; and Indian states, 358-369; as President of AISPC, 359; and nationalist economic demands, 382; attitude to World War

I, 389; and nationalist approach to World problems, 392-3; and Fascism, 393; refusal to meet Mussolini, 393; and Spanish Civil War, 393-4; and Czechoslovakia, 394; and Soviet Union, 396; and World War II, 397, 448-9, 451-3; on communalism, 401; and Muslim League and Ministry formation in U.P. in 1937, 440; and Bose in 1939, 444-5; differences with Bose, 445-7; and crisis at Tripuri, 444-6; and Individual Satyagraha, 453; and Cripps Mission, 457-8; and INA prisoners' release campaign, 475-8; and Cabinet Mission Plan, 493; and Interim Government, 493-4, 500; and Constituent Assembly, 495; and Mountbatten Plan, 498; and Partition of India, 500-3, and 15 August 1947, 504; and civil liberties, 521. Nehru, Motilal, (1861-1931), and Public Safety Bill, 15, 244; gives up legal practice, 187, 236, and Swaraj Party and Council Entry, 235; and Gandhi, 236, 239, 240; on constitutional advance, 241; communalist attack on, 244; and Soviet Union, 244; on achievements of Swarajists, 245; and Dominion Status, 264; visit to Soviet Union, 396; and secularism, 410; communal attack on, 422; and role in legislature, 513; and non-violence, 514. Nehru Report, 263-4, 423, 424. No-changers; and council entry, 235-7; and Gandhi, 236-8; and mass movements, 238; and constitutional work, 245.

Non-Cooperation Movement; political and economic background of, 185; and Congress, 185-6; course of, 185; and Revolutionary Terrorists, 186; programme of, 186-8; and Nagpur session of Congress, 186; and Hindu-Muslim unity, 186, 196; and Prince of Wales' visit, 189; in Midnapur district, 189; in Chirala-Pirala and Pedanandipadu in Andhra, 189, 194; and Kisan movement in Avadh, 189-90; and peasant movement in Malabar, 190; and Assam tea-plantation labourers' strike, 190; and defiance of forest laws in Andhra, 190; and peasant and tribal movements in Rajasthan, 190; and Akali Movement, 190; and local movements, 190; government policy towards, 190-1; and civil disobedience in Bardoli taluqa, 191; Chauri Chaura and withdrawal of, 191; controversy around withdrawal of, 192-5; evaluation of, 195; widening the social base of, 195-6; and role of masses, 195-6; participation of Muslims in, 196. Non-violence, Gandhian, 271-2; as part of nationalist strategy, 274, 514-6; acceptance of— by Congressmen as policy, 516; and mass participation, 514; and women, 514; and character of colonial state and British state, 514-5; and struggle on the moral plane, 515; and destruction of colonial hegemony, 515; and capacity of the masses to face repression, 515-6, as part of revolutionary strategy, 516; Nehru and Bhagat Singh on, 516; Government and, 273-4, 289, 515-6.

O

Office acceptance debate, 319 ff.

P

Pakistan, demand for, 435-6, 439-40.

Pal, Bipin Chandra, (1858-1932); on foreign capital, 94; and Swadeshi Movement, 128; retirement from politics of, 133, 141; and labour, 213; and Russian Revolution, 297, 395; leaves Congress, 433.

Pal, Kristodas, (1838-84), 114.

Pande, Chittu, 446.

Pan-Islamism, 420.

Pant, Govind Ballabh, (1887-1961), 262, 446.

Parikh, Narhari, (1891-1957), 178, 205.

Parmanand, Bhai, (1874-1947), 149, 427.

Partition of Bengal, 124-7.

Pasi, Madari, 200.

Patel, Maniben, (1903 - ), 207, 363.

Patel, Vallabhbhai (Sardar), (1875-1950), 323, 410, 476, 498, 500; and peasant struggle in Kheda, 180, 206; gives up legal practice, 187; and Bardoli struggle, 206 ff, and Nagpur flag satyagraha, 206; as No-Changer, 235; on council-entry, 235-6; as President of Ahmedabad Municipal Committee, 242; and integration of Indian states, 360, 365; and Rajkot struggle, 362-3; and Subhas Bose, 443-4; and national movement in World War II, 449; and Quit India Movement, 469; and RIN Revolt, 484-5; and Cabinet Mission Plan, 493; and Partition of India, 503; and nonviolence, 514.

Patel, Vithalbai, J., (1873-1933), 180, 241-2, 289, 361.

Patil, Nana, (1900-), 416.

Patnaik, Biju, 463.

Patwardhan, Achyut, (1905-) 309, 463, 464, 466.

Peasant movements after 1857, 41, 50 ff; and peasant protest as crime, 50; Indigo Revolt (1859-60), 51-4; Pabna unrest, 54-6; Deccan agrarian riots, 56-8; and Mappila rebellions, Ramosi outbreak, and Kuka Revolt, 58, in Assam, 58; role of violence in, 52, 54-5, 57; role of social boycott in, 52, 57; use of legal machinery in, 52-4, 59; Hindu-Muslim unity in, 53, 55; role of intelligentsia in, 53, 55-6, 57-8; notions of legitimacy and legality, 55, 59; and colonial states, 53-4, 57, 59-60; character of 58; objectives of, 58; territorial reach of, 58, spontaneous character of, 58; sense of solidarity in, 59; and colonialism, 58-60; major weaknesses of, 58-60; and concept of alternative society, 59-60.

Peasant movements in the 1920s, in Avadh, 197 ff; Eka Movement, 200-1; Mappila rebellion, 201 ff; Bardoli struggle, 204 ff.; and national movement, 189-90; 197, 203-4, 209.

Peasant movements in 1930s and 1940s, 343 ff; and national struggle, 343, 355; and Congress ministries, 345; forms of mobilization of, 346, 354; Kisan manifesto (1937) 345; in Malabar, 346-7; in Andhra, 347-8; in Bihar, 348-9; in Punjab, 349-50; in princely states of Punjab, 350-1; in Bengal, Orissa, North-West Frontier Province, and Central Provinces, 351; and WW II, 351-2; in post-war period, 352; and demand for zamindari abolition, 352; Tebhaga struggle, 352-3; contribution of, 354; and agricultural labourers, 354; Basic demands of, 354; and notion of legitimacy, 354; and violence, 355.

Peshawar Uprisings, (1931), 273.

Petit, Dinshaw, (1823-1901), 72, 114-5.

Petit, Mithuben, 207.

Phadke, Vasudev Balwant, (1845-83), 58.

Phule, Jyotiba, (1827-90), 88.

Pillai, Chidambaram, (1872-1936), 128, 133, 214.

Pillai, P. Krishna, (1906-48), 232, 278, 347.

Poona Sarvajanik Sabha, 57-8, 69, 72, 76, 108.

Pradhan, R.G., 21.

Prakasam, T., (1872-1957), 187, 244, 261, 330, 347.

Praja Mandals, 357-9.

Prarthana Samaj, 83.

Prasad, Bisheshwar, 21.

Prasad, Rajendra, (1894-1963), 178, 235, 242, 277, 320, 323, 332, 410, 439, 443, 447, 449.

Press, The; Indian nationalist and freedom of, 102; major newspapers, 102-3, role of — in national movement, 102-5; national movement and defence of freedom of, 105; and Vernacular Press Act of 1878, 73, 105.

Princely States, 356-7; lack of civil liberties in, 357; and Government of India Act of 1935, 358; integration with Indian Union, 360, 365.

Princely States, Freedom struggle in, 356 ff; impact of national movement in British India on, 357; and Praja Mandals, 357-9; and States' Peoples' Conference, 357; and All India States' Peoples' Conference, 357, 358, 369; impact of Congress Ministries on, 358; and World War II, 359; and Quit India Movement, 359-60; and Rajkot struggle, 360 ff; and Hyderabad struggle, 367 ff; methods of struggle in, 373; and violence, 373.

Communist and Left role in, 373.

Progressive Writers' Association, 310.

Public Safety Bill (Act), 15, 219, 249, 384; and Swarajists, 242, 244.

Punnappa-Vayalar uprising, 352, 473.

Puranik, Chhotubhai (1885-1950), 463.

Q

Quit India Movement, 352, events leading to, 458; declaration of, 459-60; government suppression of, 460-62; causes of, 461 ff; forms of, 461; workers and, 461; in Bihar and Eastern U.P., 462; underground organization of, 463-4; and violence, 464-5, 469-70, and parallel governments in Ballia, Midnapur and Satara, 466-7; popular participation, 461, 467; and peasantry, 467; and split in Kisan Sabha, 352; and attitude of government officials, 341, 461-8; and Muslims, 468; and Communists, 352, 468; in princely states, 359-60, 369; historiographic debate on, 468-9; and spontaneity, 468-9, significance of, 469-70; demand for enquiry into official excesses during, 475.

R

Rahul Sankritayan, (1892-1963), 348.

Rajagopalachari, C, (1879-1972), 187, 235, 311, 315, 326-7, 330, 336, 454.

Rajguru, Shiv Ram Hari, (1903-1931), 249-50, 284.

Rajkot struggle, 360 ff.

Raju, Ramchandra, 260.

Rani Singh, Baba, (1826-1885), 58.

Ramchandra, Babu, (1875-1950), 198-9.

Ranade, M.G., (Justice), (1842-1901), 80, 120, 508, 523, and role of memorials, 76-7; and revivalism, 85; and caste system, 88; as a reformer, 88; and role of industrial development, 92.

Ranga N.G., 344-5, 347, 352, 479, 482.

Rani Lakshmbai of Jhansi, (1835-1858), 32-3, 37, 39.

- Rashid Ali, (Day), 479, 482.
 Rashtriya Swayamsewak Sangh (RSS), and extreme communalism, 437-8; and Gandhi, 438.
 Ravishankar (Raval) Maharaj, (1892- ), 245.
 Ray, Prafulla Chandra, (1861-1944), 131.
 Ray, Pritwish Chandra, 126.
 Reading, Lord, (1860-1935), 238.
 Reay, Lord, 70.
 Red Shirts, see Khudai Khidmatgars.
 Reddy, B. Yella, 369.
 Reddy, Ravi Narayan, 369-70.
 Revolt of 1857, 31 ff, 41; Capture of Delhi, 31, 37; role of sepoy discontent in, 32-5; role of sepoys in, 31, 38; spread of, 32-3; role of aristocracy and other traditional leaders in, 36, and taluqdars, 36, 39; role of religion, 34, 37; and cultural concerns, 37; and agrarian discontent, 35; and ruined handicraftsmen, 36; and character of, 35, 39-40; and civil population, 35; as civil rebellion, 35-6; as popular uprising, 35, 37; planned or spontaneous character of, 37; and rebel administration, 37-8; and rulers of princely states, 37-8; causes of failures of, 38-9; role of merchants in, 38; role of intelligentsia in, 38; lack of political perspective in, 39; fall of Delhi, 39; significance of, 39-40; and national movement, 40; reasons for lack of territorial spread of, 44; and Hindu-Muslim unity, 414; prominent leaders of, Bahadur Shah, 31, 37-9; Nana Sahib, 32, 37, 39; Begum Hazrat Mahal, 32, 39; Khan Bahadur Khan, 32, 38; Kunwar Singh, 32, 39; Maulavi Ahmedullah of Faizabad, 37, 39; Tantia Tope, 39.
 Revolutionary Socialist Party, 258, 307.
 Revolutionary Terrorists, see Terrorists.
 Ripon, Lord, Revolutionary, 65-8, 105.
 Roosevelt, President, 455.
 Round Table Conference, 266, 279-80; failure of, 286; role of communalists in, 426-7.
 Rowlatt Bills, 181, 184.
 Rowlatt Satyagraha, 181-3.
 Roy, Karuna Sindhu, 351.
 Roy, M.N., (1887-1954), 300, 307, 345.
 Roy, Rammohan, (Raja), (1772-1833), 15, 82-6, 88-9, 102.
 Royal Indian Naval Revolt (RIN Revolt), 480-1; and Bombay working class, 480; significance of, 481-3, and communal unity, 482.
 Russian Revolution, and Indian nationalists, 296-7; impact of on India, 296-7.
- S
 SGPC (Shiromani Gurdwara Prabhandhak Committee), 226, 228-9
 Safety-valve theory of foundation of the Congress, 17; some writers' treatment of, 61-4, 69; role of secret reports, 62-5; role of religious leaders, gurus and chelas, 65-9; role

- of Congress as social reform organization, 69; and Hume, see under Hume; critical evaluation of, 65 ff, 67-70.
 Saha, Gopinath, (1901-24), 251.
 Sahajanand, Swami, (1889-1950), 307, 328, 334, 344, 348, 352.
 Salimullah, Nawab of Dacca, 132, 417.
 Salt Satyagraha, see Civil Disobedience Movement.
 Santhal Uprising, 46-8; and non-tribal poor, 47; Sido and Kanhu as leaders of, 47-8.
 Sanyal, Sachindranath, (1895-1945), 144, 154, 248.
 Sapru, Tej Bahadur, (1875-1949), 261, 279, 433, 475.
 Sarabhai, Ambalal, 175, 375.
 Sarabhai, Mridula, 504.
 Sarkar, N.R., (1861-1943), 379, 465.
 Satya Sodhak Samaj, 83.
 Satyagraha in South Africa, see Gandhi, M.K.
 Satyamurti, S., (1889-1943), 27, 216, 311.
 Savarkar, V.D., (1883-1966), 144-5, 150, 156, 429, 437, 441.
 Sayani, R.M., (1847-1902), 117, 416.
 Seal, Anil, 17-19.
 Sehgal, P.K., 478.
 Sen, Keshub Chandra, (1838-84), 86.
 Sen, N.N., (1843-1911), 103.
 Sen, Sunil, 353.
 Sen, Surya, (1894-1934), 247, 251.
 Sengupta, J.M., (1885-1933), 216, 250.
 Separate electorate, 142, 290, 419, 421; for depressed classes, 290; and Poona Pact, 291.
 Shah, C.G., 405.
 Shah, Nawaz, 472, 478.
 Shankar Lal, Lala (1885-1950), 375.
 Sharma, Karyanand, (1900 - ), 348.
 Sherwani, T.A.K., (d.1935), 434.
 Shivaji festival, 107, 130.
 Shobhani, Umar, 189.
 Sholapur, popular uprising in, 220.
 Shraddhanand, Swami, (1856-1926), 228, 421.
 Shroff, A.D., 376.
 Shukla, Raj Kumar, 178.
 Simla conference, 470.
 Simon Commission, 260-1.
 Simon Commission, boycott of, 246, 261 ff, death of Lajpat Rai, 262; role of youth movement in, 262-3.
 Hindu Mahasabha and, 261; Muslim League and, 261.
 Simon Commission, Report of, 279.
 Singaravelu, M., 297.
 Singh, Mohan, (1909- ), 471.
 Singh Sabha Movement, 83.
 Sinha, Bejoy, 248, 255.
 Sinha, Sachidanand, (1871-1950), 99.
 Sitaramayya, Pattabhi, (1880-1959), 21, 443.
 Smith, W.C., 428.
 Smuts, General, 173, 175.
 Socialism, spread of socialist ideas in India, 297; and Jawaharlal Nehru, see Nehru, Jawaharlal, and Subhas Bose, see Bose, Subhas; and Revolutionary Terrorists, see Terrorists, Revolutionary; and Communists, see Communists; and Congress Socialist Party, see Congress Socialist Party.

Socio-religious Reform Movements, 82 ff, Indian society in the 19th century, 82-4; need for reform, 82-4; and renaissance, 82; social base of, 82; and colonialism, 82; among Hindus, 82-3; among Muslims, Parsis and Sikhs, 83; religious character of social reforms, 83; and religious reformation and social reforms, 83; and women, 84, 88; and caste system, 84, 87-8; and untouchability, 84; and modernization, 84, 88; and use of tradition, 84-5; and revivalism, 84-5; and rationalism, 85-6; and religious universalism, 85-6; and secular outlook, 85-7; and notion of 'Muslim tyranny', 87; and liberal, democratic principles, 87; and religious particularism, 86-7; and challenge of colonial culture and ideology, 87, 89; and traditional culture, 87, 89; and the individual, 87; evaluation of, 88-90; and defence of indigenous culture, 89-90; and creation of alternate cultural-ideological system, 89-90; revivalism and cultural defence, 90; as cultural-ideological struggle, 90.

Spear, Percival, 17.

Spratt, Philip, 302.

Sri, Narayan Dharma Paripalana Sabha, 83.

Sri, Narayan guru, (1854-1928), 88, 230.

Sri Ram, 376, 524.

Strategy of Indian National Movement; strategic debate, 311 ff, and office acceptance debate, 32, 320; linked to character of national movement as a mass movement, 13; as Struggle-Truce-Struggle or S-T-S', 313, 315, 509; and struggle for hegemony, 25, 289, 488, 507-8, 516-7; Gramscian as war of position, 13, 25, 507; and undermining of colonial hegemony and notions of benevolence and invincibility, 24, 313, 488, 508; and ideological-political work, 508; and constitutional space, 13-4, 505, 513-4; and use of legality in non-mass movements, 333; and non-violence, 25, 505, 514-6; role of Moderates and Extremists and Gandhi in the evolution of, 505-6; role of Gandhian practice in the study of, 505; and nature and character of British rule and colonial state, 25, 506-7, 511; and state apparatuses, 489, 508; and British people, 508; and expansion of democratic political space, 509; and advance through stages, 25, 509-10; and alteration of two types of phases, 13, 24-5, 313, 505, 507, 509-11; and incapacity of masses for prolonged sustenance of mass movement, 134, 194-5, 281-2, 510-11; and withdrawal of movement, 289; and the decision to start or withdraw a movement, 511-2; and role of negotiations, 485, 512; and avoidance of split in movements', 514; and class adjustments, 24; and role of cadre, 511; and role of the masses, 507, 511; and transfer of power, 25; and Gramscian perspective, 13, 517; evaluation of success and failure of, 516; world significance of, 516-7; Left's alternative to Gandhian strategy, 312 ff.

Student Movement, 262-3, 297.

Subramanian, Tirumambu, 232.

Sukhdev, 247-50, 254-5, 284.

Sun Yat-Sen, 390.

Sundarayya, P., (1913-85), 347.

Surat Split, 128, 135 ff; also see Congress and National Movement, Indian, early and extremists.

Swadeshi Movement, 1903-8, 124 ff, and freedom of the Press, 111; role of women in, 124, 131-2, and of students, 124, 131, and zamindars, 131, and working class, 132, 213-5; and peasantry, 129, 132; social base of, 127, 131-2; and Moderates, 127-8; and Extremists, 128; all-India spread of, 128; and new forms of mobilization and techniques of struggle, 128; and passive resistance and non-cooperation, 124, 128, 133; and boycott, 124, 128-9; and art, literature, music, science, 124, 131; and mass movement, 128-9; role of public meetings and processions, 129, and Samitis, 129-30, and traditional cultural forms, 130, 132-3, and self-reliance, 130, and Muslims, 129, 132; and national education, 130; and indigenous enterprises, 131; impact on culture, 131, 134; and national songs, 131; influence of international socialist currents, 132; and British policy of divide and rule, 132; and Hindu tinge, 132-3; repression of, 133-4; reasons for decline of 133-4; lack of organization of, 133; and rise of Revolutionary Terrorism, 134; impact and contribution of, 124, 134; and socialist tinge in, 214.

Swaraj Party, (Swarajists); and work in Councils, 235, 237, 239-41; and avoidance of split in Congress, 236-8; and mass movement, 238; use of legislatures (or Councils), 237; and Gandhi's leadership, 238; Gandhi and, 238-9; programme of, 240-1; elections of 1923, 240-1; and Liberals, 241; and Jinnah, 241; and civil liberties, 241; and industrial development, 241; and release of political prisoners, 240-1; impact of work in legislatures by, 242; and communalism, 244; internal cohesion of, 242-3; limit of work in councils, 242-3; government policy towards, 243; in Bengal and tenants' cause, 243; Responsivist currents among, 243; elections of 1926, 244; and Public Safety Bill, 244; abandons councils, 245; achievements of, 245.

Swatanter, Teja Singh, (1901-73), 350-1.

Syed Ahmed Khan, (1817-98), 85-7, 114; and Aligarh College, 414; and early secular outlook, 414; turn towards communalism, 415; opposition to Congress, 415; and jagirdari classes, 415; and politics, 417.

T

Tagore, Abanindranath, (1871-1951), 131.
 Tagore, Jatindra Mohan, (1831-1908), 114.
 Tagore, Rabindranath, (1861-1941), 131.
 Tara Singh, Master, (1885-1967), 227.
 Tata, J.R.D., 376, 381, 524.
 Tebhaga Struggle, 352-3, 473.
 Telang, K.T., (1850-1893), 72, 89.
 Telengana Rebellion, 352, 370-1, 473.
 Temple entry campaign, 230 ff, significance of, 234; weaknesses of, 234.
 Terrorists, Revolutionary, 135, 142 ff, Rise of in Bengal 142-4; decline of early, 145; contribution of early, 145; and Non-Cooperation Movement, 186, 247; during WW I, 247; impact of Russian Revolution in, 248; impact of working class movement in, 247-8; in North India, 247 ff, and Marxism 248, 255, 257-8; and socialism, 248, 256-7, 297; in Bengal, 247, 250 ff; and C.R. Das, 250; and Subhas Bose, 250; Chittagong Armoury Raid, 251-3; and death of Lajpat Rai, 249; Central Assembly Bomb Case, 249, 266; and Conspiracy Cases, 249-50; hunger strike in jails, 250; and role of masses, 249; and religion, 253, 258; and Muslims, 253-4; abandonment of terrorism, 255-6, 257-8; communalism and secularism 257-8, radical social programme of, 254; decline of, 258; joins the Left parties and groups, 258; and Quit India Movement, 463; also see Anushilan Samiti and Yugantar Samiti.

 Thakurdas, Purshottamdas, 244, 376-8, 380-1.
 Tilak, Bal Gangadhar, (1856-1920), 120, 133, 178, 485; defence of — by Moderate nationalists, 15; and India as nation-in-the-making, 23; on railways, 96; on colonialism and economic underdevelopment, 99; as journalist, 103, 104, 108, 112; and struggle for freedom of the Press, 107, 108, 521; and role of peasants, lower middle classes and workers, 107, 118; and no-tax campaign in 1896-7, 108; and anti-plague measures, 108; imprisonment of (1897), 108-110; imprisonment of (1898), 111-12, 141; on revolutionary terrorism, 111; popular protest against imprisonment of, 112; Tilak's trial and Gandhi's trial, 112; and demand for self-government, 116; as member of legislative council, 117; on Pherozeshah Mehta's work in legislature, 118; on Gokhale, 1-23; and Ganapati and Shivaji festivals and Hindu tinge, 107, 130, 410, 420; and Swadeshi Movements, 128, 150, 156; and Surat Split, 139-41; popular support of, 141-, release of, 141, 159; and Home Rule League, 146, 160, 161, 162, 169; readmission into Congress, 159, 160, 165; renunciation of violence, 159; and World War I, 160, 161, 389; and unity in the Congress, 161; and linguistic states, 162; on non-Brahmin representation, 162; on untouchability, 162, 230; and religious appeals, 162; secular appeal of, 162, 163; defence of by M.A. Jinnah, 163; externment from Punjab, 165; and Lucknow Pact, 166, 420; and passive resistance, 167; death of, 185; and organizational changes in Congress, 186; and GIP, Railway Signallers' strike, 213; and AITUC, 215; and undermining of colonial hegemony, 508; and democracy 520; and adult franchise, 520; on foreign capital, 523.

Tilak Swaraj Fund, 188.

Tirtha, Swami Ramanand, (1903-1973), 367, 369-72.

Trade Disputes (Bill) Act, 15, 219, 249.

Transfer of Power, reasons for, 489-92, 498; Britain and, 498-9.

Tribal Rebellions and Uprisings, 41, 45 ff, colonial impact on tribal people, 45; causes of, 45; solidarity among tribal rebels, 45-6; and non-tribal rural poor, 46-7; forms of, 46; leaders of, 46; defeat of, 46; Kol rebellion, 48, Rampa rebellion, 48; Munda rebellion and Birsa Munda, 48-9; also see Santhal Uprising.

Tripathi, Amles, 21.

Tyabji, Badruddin, (1844-1906), 416.

V

Vaikom Satyagraha, 230-1, 233, 234; and role of KPCC, 230, 231.

Varma, Shiv, 247-8, 255.
 Velu, Thampi, Dewan, 43, 47.
 Vernacular Press Act of 1878, 103, and Indian national movement, 105.
 Vidyasagar, Ishwarchandra, (1820-91), 83, 85-6.

Vikar-ul-Mulk, 417.

Viraraghavachariar, 72, 117.

Viswanathan, T., 321.

Vivekananda, Swami, (1863-1902), 83, 88.

Vohra, Bhagwati Charan, 247-8, 255-6.

W

Wacha, Dinshaw, 80, 120, 213.

Waddedar, Pritilata, 253.

Walchand, Hirachand, 376.

Walesa, Lech, 13.

Wang, Ming, 340.

Wavell, Lord, (1883-1950), 455, 482, 491-6.

Weber, Max, on Hindu society, 84.

Wedderburn, William, 63, 509; foundation of Congress and safety-valve, 63-4; and secret reports, 64-6.

Willingdon, Lord, (1866-1941), 285, 289, 316.

Workers' and Peasants' Parties, 219, 263; growth of, 301; dissolution of, 303.

Working Class, Indian, 210 ff; formation of — and India as a nation, 210; early strikes, 210; nationalists in intelligentsia and working class, 210; early organization of, 210-11; and early nationalists, 211-3; and later 20th century nationalists and pro-labour orientation, 211; early nationalists and GIP Railway strike in 1899, 212-3; and Swadeshi Movement, 213-4; growth of working class movement after World War I, 215, 217, and AITUC, 215; participation in national politics of, 217; railway workers and Non-Cooperation and Khilafat Movements, 217; textile strike, and Prince of Wales' visit, 217; relation between working class movement and national upsurge, 117, resurgence of — and the Left, 218-9; and Workers' and Peasants' Parties, 219; participation in national movement from 1927-29, 219; government policy towards, 219-20; participation in CDM, 220-1, 274; working class movement 1931-36, 221; Congress Ministries and, 221; and World War II, 222; and Quit India Movement, 222; resurgence of — during 1945-47, 222-3; and INA prisoners' release campaign, 222; in Bombay and ROM Revolt, 223; also see AITUC.

World War I and National Movement, 146 ff.

World War II and National Movement, 397.

Warlis Revolt, 473.

Y

Yagnik, Indulal, 161, 180, 307, 345, 352.

Yashpal, 255-6.

Youth Movement, 260, 263, 297.

Yugantar Samiti, 144, 150, 250-1

Z

Zafar Ali Khan, Maulana, 420,

THE DEFINITIVE BOOK ON THE INDIAN STRUGGLE FOR FREEDOM BY SOME OF THE
MOST AUTHORITATIVE
HISTORIANS OF MODERN INDIA

India's Struggle for Independence is the first and most reliable study of India's epic struggle for freedom. This classic work begins with the abortive revolt against the British in 1857 and culminates in Indian Independence in 1947. Based on years of research as well as personal interviews with hundreds of freedom fighters, it presents a lucid and enduring view of the history of the period.

'Indispensable for students and for all those who want to know our past in order to understand the present'
— Indian Express

Non-fiction/History

www.penguinbooksindia.com

Cover design and illustration by Geetha Anil